

The Utopia Protocol:

As a Clinical Hypnotherapist, Somatic Specialist, and Trauma-Informed Practitioner, I help clients move beyond just "talking" about the pain. My practice focuses on how the body and your nervous system holds onto stress and how we can gently release it.

By combining clinical hypnotherapy with body-based somatic awareness, we work to move you out of "survival mode" and into a state of lasting calm – giving you the opportunity to feel true freedom in your everyday life. Whether you are navigating grief, anxiety, panic, trauma, or deep-seated fears, we address the root cause to break the cycles keeping you stuck.
